Dear Fresher,

We are pleased that you have decided to study at the TU Ilmenau and would like to welcome you to the university on behalf of the ErstiWochen-Orga. To make your start in Ilmenau easier and to help you settle in quickly, we have put together this ErstiGuide.

You will receive tips on basic study matters and information on BAföG. In order to make your life in Ilmenau exciting besides your studies, we provide you introductions to some clubs and leisure activities. In addition, we explain who is behind the student council (StuRa) and what your faculty student council (FSR) does. A more detailed version of the ErstiGuide can be found at www.erstiwoche.de/en/erstiguide. We hope that this will make it easier for you to start your studies. If you find any information missing in this guide or if you have any other suggestions, wishes or criticism, please feel free to send them to erstiguide@erstiwoche.de. This will help us to make this guide even better next year.

BAföG „In a nutshell“

Asset Recognition

- The BAföG rate is usually calculated on the basis of (1.) own assets, (2.) own income and the (3.) income of parents and spouses.
- The approval period (BWZ) is usually 12 months.

Own assets

- The allowance for a single person without a child is 8200 € (from autumn 2020). Proven debts and burdens can be taken into account negatively.

Own income

- Child benefit is not taken into account.
- Single students without a child are allowed to earn 5,421.84 € gross (451.82 €/month) during the entire grant period.

Income of parents and spouses

- Only the income of your natural parents or your adoptive parents will be taken into account. The income of stepparents is not taken into account at all.

Funding duration

- The maximum duration of funding for degree programs is generally based on the standard period of study.
- Extension of the eligibility period is possible in case of legally recognized reason (illness, pregnancy, child raising, disability, committee activity).

BAföG for students without a German passport

- For foreign students, different rules apply in some cases. We therefore advise you to contact the BAföG office directly.

BAföG and change of field of study

- If a change of field of study takes place, one usually starts again with the first semester of study.
- The change is unproblematic up to the third semester, after that you have to give comprehensible reasons.

Repayment

- Generally, half of the subsidy is an interest-free loan.
- The loan debt is limited to a maximum of 10.000 €.
- Repayment begins five years after the end of the maximum funding period.

The Student Council of the TU Ilmenau (StuRa)

The Student Council (StuRa) is the elected representation of interests of the entire student body of the TU Ilmenau and represents the students vis-à-vis the university, the city, the state and the federal government. It consists of 21 equal members with voting rights. These are elected annually by the student body in the summer semester (usually at the beginning of June), with 16 of the members being directly elected. In addition, each of the five student councils sends a representative to the StuRa. Do you want to change something yourself, get involved or bring a breath of fresh air with new ideas to the StuRa? Then just drop by the public meetings, you can find the date and place online <https://stura.tu-ilmenau.de/en/>.

The StuRa has set up departments for a number of topics. In addition, working groups have been formed within the StuRa, mostly across departments, which deal with the realisation of concrete projects. If you are interested, you can always contact a member of the respective department. You can find all further information on the website.

Department councils

Each of the 5 faculties at our university has a department council. These are subordinate to the StuRa and represent the interests of the students to the faculty. A department council usually consists of 8 members elected by the students, as well as several active representatives. The main tasks of the department council are to support, represent and advise students with problems with professors, exams and general problems during their studies. Furthermore, the department council works in committees and commissions to make the degree programs and modules more student-friendly and to optimise them with the experience gained in practice. Of course, department council work is not just dry bureaucracy, because the student council members also organise various social events, parties, events for first-year students to get to know each other, interesting excursions and much more.

So if you have any problems or want to get involved, look out for the people with the black jumpers with red lettering and just talk to them, write them an email or come to their weekly meetings. You can find all the information on the website of your department council.
